May 2010

It's hard to believe that May is already upon us. School year 2009-2010 has been a wonderful year! The children are all such a blessing and a joy to watch learn and grow. Everyone has grown so much this year, in size and abilities, you should be very proud of each one. We are, they are each so very special. We thank you for giving us the opportunity to teach and care for them. We are proud of those who are going on to kindergarten and we'll miss them very much, and we are excited for the next academic year.

Let us begin this month by thanking God for mothers. There is no “How-to” book when it comes to mothering. So often, moms go above and beyond the call of duty and we applaud them for that.

“Thanks mom for wiping my tears,
for comforting my fears,
and for loving me through my growing years.”
Happy Mother's Day !
